Resident from Townsend Street came in for information on whether any emergency shelters are open due to the power outage in the Point Shirley area of Town. Party was advised that there were none open at this time and to call 911 in case of any emergencies. He was advised to stay with other family if possible until late today. National Grid's last reported update is that power should be restored by 1500 hours today. Email to Chief and Deputy Chief for any updated information regarding any plans for opening a shelter.
