                         Party called to report noise coming from the apt. overhead.
                         [REDACTED] Caller reports she just got home after being at work since 6:30am and now there is banging on the ceiling. Caller was very upset and was ok with just having it noted. A few minutes later caller called back and stated it started up again as soon as she hung up the phone. 914a reached out to the other party who stated that it was actually the other party who was banging but she didn't want to call to make a report due to all that is going on (COVID-19) and then party informed the calling officer that she just rec. ct.
                         paperwork from the other party and tonight may have something to do with that.

Narrative: Perrin S, Sean
Modified By: Perrin S, Sean

Above party came into police headquarters to report observing a suspicious motor vehicle yesterday evening while visiting his daughter at his ex-wife's residence. RP is concerned because DCF currently has an open case in which the ex wife is supposed to abstain from drug/alcohol use, and believes this motor vehicle may be engaged in illicit drug activity. See attached report.

Call Taker: WP926 - Hagemeister, William
Location/Address: [WIN FPAV] PAULINE STREET / [REDACTED] PAULINE ST Narrative: Hagemeister, William
Party came into the station to report that while walking out of the marsh near the lower end of Winthrop St. A dog, that was on a leash accompanied by its owner, walked up to him and bit him on the thigh. He stated it broke the skin, but did not cause him to bleed. He asked the man if the dog had its shots, and the man stated yes. He got no other information from the man. The dog was a white pitbull with black spots. ACO was notified and will follow up. Party refused to let us call for medical attention stating he was fine.
