The above party called to inquire about police being at her former apartment looking for her. I explained that we received a summons from Lynn District Court (2113CR000331) for her to appear as a victim/witness. She stated that this was an old case and both parties had moved on and she no longer wished to pursue the matter. I advised her to call the Essex County District Attorney's Office and speak with them in regards to her wishes. I then emailed a copy of the summons to her.

Party came into the station to report problem he had with a local business [REDACTED]. He paid the owner to make him a couch and paid him 5400 in installments. He received the couch today, and discovered it was not the way he ordered it. He had already paid out 3000 towards it with the final payment today of 2400 which he paid in cash. He was not given a receipt and this upset him also. He was informed this was a civil matter, and was told how to pursue it. He stated he will contact a lawyer, and proceed civil court in East Boston.
