Female Party called into HQ crying. Stated that earlier she was at the Winthrop Neighborhood Health Center Clinic for approximately 3 Hours receiving treatment as she is 6 months pregnant. She stated that the owner of the property had called Todisco Towing to tow her vehicle for trespassing. She stated she then went outside before they could tow the vehicle and had to pay a "drop fee" of approximately $108.00, which she felt was illegal after viewing the Mass.gov website. She was advised to contact Winthrop Neighborhood Health Center, the owner of the building as well as Todisco Towing. She was also advised that this was a civil matter and would be documented only at this time. She was satisfied with this outcome.

Party came into the station to report several attempts at fraud. She first received a card in the mail for an expiring automobile warranty, when she called the number a "Jennifer Taylor" tried to solicit her personal information, RP hung up. Several minutes later she received a call from "Amazon" stating that someone attempted to charge her account $1537 and that they would need her bank information to block the transaction. Again RP hung up. Several minutes later she received a call from someone claiming to be "Social Security" stating that her social security card was canceled. RP did everything correctly and hung up on these scammers. It was upsetting but she wanted us to be aware so that we may prevent someone else from being a victim.
