Male (from FedEx) called headquarters to inquire if there was a police response to a particular address on July 3rd involving particular individuals. The male was advised there was a police response to the address in question, however no further information could be provided over the phone and he would need to file paperwork at the police station to obtain additional information. Male party requested officer name/badge number which was provided. A short time later, the male party arrived at police headquarters to file the paperwork for information regarding any police reports that may exist. The male party was specifically inquiring about a domestic or OUI issue.
