Female Party called into HQ regarding collecting keys from her parents who reside in Winthrop as she no longer wishes to allow them access to her residence. She was advised that this was not a police matter and was advised of remedies that we could assist her with if needed. Female party then went on to speak on an incident involving a family member out of state and was advised to report it to the police department in the jurisdiction it occurred in. Female party also spoke on past family issues and was advised to call 9-1-1 immediately if there was an emergency situation in the future.
