Narrative: STONE, DANIEL

A female party entered the station to inquire about assistance. The verizon language line was utilized for communication. The female party reported that she and her husband had allowed a man to live in her rental apartment for the last year and no longer wished for him to live there. The man does not want to leave, and she had been to EBDC for the civil matter. She was informed by EBDC that she must have the landlord petition for eviction. An inquiry into the situation was made, about any criminal matters in the home, to which none were reported. The female party was again informed that her situation is a civil matter and she needs to speak with the landlord about evicting the tenant.
